

Candidate Bio

Gregory P. Smith

Retired. Background in public utility economics and regulatory affairs, business finance and operations, quality management, sales.

Master of Business Administration, Wayne State University.

Purchased property in Saint Leo in 1997 and built a home on it in 2007. Have lived in east Pasco since 2000.

No stranger to civic involvement:

- Active volunteer of Florida Lakewatch, a University of Florida program for monitoring water quality. Perform monthly sampling of water in Lake Jovita/Clear Lake for laboratory analysis since 2000.
- Active member and past president of the Friends of the Hugh Embry Library in Dade City.
- Volunteer labor for East Pasco Habitat for Humanity.
- Served as ambassador for the Greater Dade City Chamber of Commerce.
- In the 1980s and 1990s, served on several boards and commissions in Southfield Michigan.
- In Detroit, served as support person for the Labor Committee for the Mayor's Committee for the 21st Century.

